THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or readjusted; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the right of suffrage in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as be requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law in force when they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds, and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government restored, and the currency made sound; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into National forces in time of peace; a tax of not exceeding fifty cents per pound, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7. Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from offices, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the guaranteeing of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these and such reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected the States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and virtually destroys its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given by their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government.

When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

NOTICE

IS hereby given, that in pursuance of an order from T. J. Latham, Register in Bankruptcy for the Western District of Tennessee, there will be a second general meeting of the creditors of W. H. EX-CONFEDERATE GENERALS IN COUNCIL.

Their Memorial to the Legislature.

From the Nashville Banner of the 2d.]

In accordance with the call referred to in our last issue, the following Confederate Generals assembled yesterday morning at Gen. Bate's office, in the Porter Building: Gens. Cheatham, Pillow, Smith, Quarles, Palmer, Gardener, Brown, Gordon, Anderson, Dibbrell, Johnson and Maney. Their deliberations lasted from half-past eleven to half-past six o'clock, and were strictly confined to the distinguished gentlemen named above. At six o'clock they proceeded to the Capitol and met the Military Committees of both Houses.

Gen. Brown, chairman of the Committee of the ex-Confederate Generals, appointed to present the memorial to the Military Committees, did so in a few brief remarks, in which he showed that what was said in the memorial was said in earnest, and he believed, represented the sentiments of the Confederate soldiers throughout the State. Their purpose was to give to the Legislature such an assurance as to show no necessity for the calling out of the militia. He then read the memorial, which is as follows:

To the Honorable, the Legislature of Tennessee, now in Extraordinary Session:

The right of petition and remonstrance being conceded by all classes in this country, and feeling, as we do, a deep solicitude for the peace and quiet of our great and glorious State, and belonging to that class in Tennessee who are regarded by some of the authorities as hostile to the present organization, we yield to a sense of duty, and respectfully invite your honorable body to a consideration of our view of the means that may avert the participation of the crisis which is acknowledged to be imminent. Being identified with that large class supposed to be hostile to the State Government, we beg to respectfully say that His Excellency, the Governor, wholly misapprehends our feeling and intentions in declaring in his late message that we seek the overthrow of the State Government, or to do any other act by revolutionary or lawless means. Neither we nor those with whom, in past days, we have been associated contemplate any such rashness or folly; nor do we believe there is in Tennessee any organization, either public or secret, which has such a purpose; and if there be, we have neither sympathy or affiliation therewith. We believe the peace of the State does not require the organization of a military force by your honorable body, and respectfully submit that such a measure might more strongly tend to bring about and promote collision than to conserve the harmony and good order of the country. And, inasmuch as the supposed danger to the peace of the State is apprehended from that class of the community with which we are considered identified, as inducement and reason to your honorable body not to organize such military force, we pledge ourselves to maintain the order and peace of the State with whatever of influence we possess; to uphold and support the laws, and aid in their execution, trusting that a reciprocation of these sentiments by your honorable body will produce the enactment of such laws as will remove all irritating causes now disturbing society. For when it is remembered that the large mass of white men in Tennessee are denied the right to vote or hold office, it is not wonderful or unnatural there should exist more or less dissatisfaction among them. And we beg leave to respectfully submit for your consideration, that prompt and efficient action on the part of the proper authorities, for a removal of the political disabilities resting upon so many of our people, would heal all the wounds of our State and make us once more a prosperous, contented and united people.

Respectfully, your obedient servants,

B. F. Cheatham,	W. B. Bate,
Tom B. Smith,	Wm. A. Quarles,
Jos. B. Palmer,	Geo. W. Gordon,
N. B. Forrest,	Jno. C. Brown,
S. R. Anderson,	G. G. Dibbrell,
Bushrod R. Johnson,	Geo. Maney.

Much gratification was expressed on all sides and speeches were made by a few of the gentlemen above named as well as members of the Legislature.

The Conference then ended amid a free exchange of congratulations. All shook hands and parted more as brothers than as men so recently separated by what seemed irreconcilable party and sectional feuds.

All who were present at the Conference, or who conversed afterwards with gentlemen who participated in it, received full assurance on two vital points:

1. That the militia will not be called out.

2. That immediate steps will be taken toward a liberal extension of the franchise.

ARKANSAS.

—We clip the following from the Little Rock Gazette of the 31st ult: The weather is still very warm and dry. Heavy banks of clouds hang around the horizon, but no refreshing showers come from them.

—It is rumored that the negro who killed the soldier on the night of the 23d, has been removed to the penitentiary for safe keeping. An extra night guard was employed while he was confined in the jail.

—"Discretion is the better part of valor." The Radical organ illustrates the proverb by awaiting the departure of Col. C. S. Cameron before opening the sluices of its billingsgate on his name.

—The financial condition of our State was never more appalling than at the present moment. Tax payers you must come forward, take the oath, and vote to protect your wives and children from starvation.

—Information from the upper and lower Arkansas reports the crops prospering, and we can express a hope from present appearances of a full harvest of grain and excellent crops.

—The Helena Clarion says: "We have just heard that state warrants have been issued in Big Creek township for the arrest of Brooks, Gray and White, of the scalawag family well known to the public, upon the charge of stealing corn. Further particulars next week." The "particulars" are that the three members of the Legislature named, two of whom are negroes, were caught in a corn crib on the roadside filling their sacks. They were arrested, and when our informant left Helena were under bonds to answer to the charge of petit larceny.

—The first nigger jury that ever has been organized in Jefferson county, Ark., and perhaps in the State, was empaneled at Pine Bluff on last Tuesday, for the purpose of trying Joe Neely for whipping his step-daughter unmercifully.

—The Little Rock Gazette of the 30th ult. says: Maj. T. J. Eckerson, quartermaster for the sub-district of Arkansas, informs us that he is soon to receive about $200,000 to meet the outstanding indebtedness of his department. The money is at New Orleans and will be sent to this city as soon as an order for the transfer can be obtained. There are ten military posts in the State, all under the supervision of Maj. Eckerson. The aggregate expense of the quartermaster's department, including forage, transportation, building material and labor is about $15,000 per month.

—The private property of the late Prince Michael, of Servia, is valued at $11,000,000.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NASHVILLE, August 4.—In the State Senate yesterday, Mr. Smith, of Shelby, introduced a bill to suppress organizations parading in mask, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

LOUISVILLE, August 4.—The Courier's Washington special says several carpet-bag Senators and Representatives will be found acting with the Conservatives in the next Congress.

The President said he thought the Democratic press and speakers erred in attacking Grant personally, and the infamous legislation of Congress could be used effectively.

Gen. Banks is mentioned as the Russian minister. Gen. Rousseau leaves shortly for New Orleans.

Howard's visit South is said to be for the purpose of perfecting means to carry the Southern States for Grant.

A GENTLEMAN in Albany was arrested on Thursday for following a lady on the street. He claimed that a man had a right to admire a handsome woman, let him meet her where he might. The Court and the lady herself agreed to this, and the gentleman was discharged. Exchange.

That man evinced a deep knowledge of female human nature in making his plea. Most women will forgive an injury far sooner than a slight. Who ever heard of a woman prosecuting a man for stealing her picture, even though it were set in gold? But just let him steal the frame and leave the picture, and we warrant him prosecuted to the end of the law. He would be doomed to feel, experimentally the force of the verse of the poet, "fœmina quid possit, spretaeque injuria formæ."

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

TO THE CITIZENS OF SHELBY COUNTY.

Arrangements have been made by the Central Democratic Club of Shelby county to hold a Democratic County Convention on Wednesday, the 5th inst., at 12 o'clock m., at the New Memphis Theater, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic Convention which is to meet at Brownsville, Tenn., on the ensuing Monday. All the citizens of the county whose hearts are in the cause are invited to be present and take part in the deliberations. Citizens from the country are especially urged to attend. For their especial accommodation the hour of meeting was set at midday, and it is to be hoped that all will feel the necessity of giving the aid of their personal attendance. The meeting will be continued at the same place at night, and some of the most distinguished orators of Tennessee will be present to address the people.

Upon the results of this convention of the county, depends in a great measure the selection of a candidate for Congress, and an elector who shall properly press before the people the claims of the Democratic party, as well as give body and form to an organization that is now but in name. Results so important to us in the present campaign, should have in the fullest sense possible the indorsement of the WHOLE PEOPLE of the county, especially those resident outside of the city, who have not had opportunities to counsel with us in our preliminary meetings—in order that no reasonable occasion may remain for objection to the work of the convention. It is for this reason, and to meet an emergency greater than has ever before come upon the country, that we urge every citizen to be present on that day.

CENTRAL DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

The meeting of the Club on the evening of Saturday, August 8th, will be strictly a business one; and every member of the Club is earnestly requested to be on hand.

The committee appointed to receive subscriptions and amounts assessed on members of the Club consists of the following gentlemen: H. L. Brinkley, W. C. McClure, J. B. Farnham, T. O. Smith, Henry Seessel, jr., L. Rocco, Louis Wunderman.

By vote of the Club, each member has been required to pay to the Treasurer or some one of the said committee, the sum of one dollar. It is hoped that every one will do so promptly, that the Club and its members may not fall into discredit.

The Finance Committee, as appointed, consists of: M. J. Wicks, F. W. Smith, J. H. Edmondson, Jesse W. Page.

It is not known that these gentlemen have consented to act. They are respectfully requested to signify to the President of the Club their acceptance.

The Executive Committee of the Club is composed of the President and Vice Presidents. These are, Albert Pike, President; W. T. Avery, John W. Dawson, Michael Mageveney, jr., M. D. L. Stewart, A. E. Frankland, John W. Leftwich, F. L. Warner, Vice Presidents.

J. M. Keating has been appointed Assistant Recording Secretary of the Club, and has accepted the appointment.

By order of the President.

W. O. LOFLAND,
Recording Secretary.

THE HATRED OF A PEOPLE.

Alphonse Louis Constant, writing under the name of Elphaz Levi, says, in his 'Dogme de la Magie':

"There are persons whom one does not offend with impunity, and, if the injury done them is mortal, the wrongdoer forthwith begins to die. . . .

"If Marat had not been assassinated by Charlotte Corday, he would infallibly have died, slain by a reaction of public opinion. What made him a leper, was the execration of decent men, and he must necessarily have succumbed under it.

"The reprobation caused by the Eve of Saint Bartholomew was the sole cause of the horrible malady and death of Charles IX; and Henri IV, if he had not been sustained by an immense popularity, would hardly have survived his conversion, but would have died under the contemptuous hate of the Protestants, combined with the distrust and ill-will of the Catholics.

"Unpopularity may be a proof of integrity and courage, but it is never a proof of prudence or policy. Outrages inflicted on public opinion are fatal to statesmen.

"Condemnations by public opinion may be great injustices, but they are none the less reasons for failure, and often decrees of death.

"On the other hand, injustices done a single man may, and must if reparation is not made for them, cause the destruction of a whole people or a whole society. This is what is called the cry of blood, for at the heart of every injustice there is the germ of a homicide.

"It is on account of these terrible laws of solidarity, that Christianity insists so much on forgiveness of injuries and reconciliation. He who dies without forgiving, plunges into eternity armed with a poignard, and devotes himself to the horrors of an eternal murder."

Constant says again: "A frank hatred, absolute and without any intermixture of passion repulsed, or of personal cupidity, is a decree of death for him who is its object, under certain given conditions."

There are many physical and moral forces of whose nature and mode of action we know nothing. We do not know how will acts on will. If prayer is efficacious, why should not hate be? We believe that it is, and that the hatred of a people does not need to employ assassins. Philip the Fair died, smitten mortally by the hate of the Templars, not by the dagger or poison. These mysterious influences are enigmas to us; but they are not more so than the effects of light and the phenomena of electricity, and magnetism and the propagation of epidemics.

The conviction of a tyrant, that the hatred of the victims of his oppression, concentrated, like the sun's rays by means of a prism, into a single focus, would in some mysterious and inscrutable manner prove fatal to him, might make him pause, when no fear of assassination could restrain him. Ireland is not the weakness and the curse of England because of the overt acts of Irishmen, but of the concentrated hatred of the Celt for the Saxon.

That we do not understand how these mysterious influences act and operate, is no reason for doubting their reality. We believe in their reality; and we thank God that the hate of the oppressed can become the silent and effectual instrument of the justice of God.

The Bulletin of Monday, misunderstanding what we had said as to the mysterious power of the concentrated hate of the oppressed to punish the oppressor, imputed to us an intention to provoke assassination.

We had no reference to the dagger or the bowl in the hands of the assassin. For assassination, always a hideous crime, is also always a failure, because it is a crime. To us the act of Brutus was not an act of patriotism, and its result was only to give Rome for masters Octavius and his successors.

We do not doubt that the Bulletin will recall an odious and unjust imputation made under a mistake.

POLITICAL DISHONESTY.

"In all moral difficulties, the suggestions of an upright heart are the wisest, in all political embarrassments its judgments are the safest. The promptings of a fresh and uncorrupted heart are the index and judge of the duties of man; these are correlative with his interest; and the duties and the interests of man are the staple of all religious, moral and political science. The children of light are wiser in their own day and for their own purpose, than the children of the world. A sound heart devoted to truth will rarely err in action. That which it feels to be honest, it will know must be wise, and it will follow it. The last conclusion of strenuous reason is the first suggestion of a simple heart; and a man of that sort will easily reach, by the instinct of a right moral will, what a Burke will laboriously attain by the vast enginery of a splendid intellect."

We borrow this from a novel, published some years ago in America, and little known, but well worth reading, entitled 'Stanley.' The inclination of politicians always is to consult expediency, when it offers a probability of profit and advantage for the present moment, to honest and fair dealing that insures a present unpopularity and the certainty of a future and permanent success. Statesmen are prone to forget that there is a God and a Providence and an infinite justice, whose mandates, inexorable as those of that old God above all the Gods, FATE, are never disobeyed by men or Nations with impunity.

In this inclination to consult expediency in preference to that which is absolutely right and just and true, lies the only real danger of the South, to-day. The Almighty Father and Lord of the Universe, by the calamities and abasements which he permits his Satanic instruments to heap upon us, is submitting us to the discipline of the most powerful of all temptations, that of the oppressions, distresses and afflictions which try the souls of men, by persuading them to attempt to escape from present ills and miseries, by that submission to what seems a resistless power, which makes inevitable an eternal dishonor.

A victory won by consulting expediency and subsidizing lies and frauds, is always as worthless for permanent profit as the apples of the salt sea that stagnates above the buried cities of the plain, and like them, turns to dust and bitter ashes in the mouth.

Let us not follow the bad precedents set by dishonorable men, or think that we can sow lies and reap the golden harvests that reward only the husbandman who sows the seed of Truth, even if that of Falsehood and Duplicity at present brings high prices in the markets of the world.

The instincts of the people are honest. God has not made the human race a race of knaves, though it has always been the prey and sport of knaves. There never was a people who more instinctively scorned and despised all baseness, treachery, cunning and deceit, and loved frankness and plain dealing, than the people of the Southern States. They do not in the least resemble the faithless Greeks of the Byzantine Empire. They detest alike the political blackleg and the mercenary Dalgetty who follows the flag of faction for pay. Like every people, they are liable to be seduced by the syren of expediency, and led into dishonest and unworthy courses. Those who wish their votes find it an easier task and one offering greater probabilities of present profit, to appeal to their prejudices, their immediate interests and their passions, than to their reason; but calamities and afflictions lessen the value of these inducements, and open the ears of the people to wiser and more honest counsels.

Truth, Right, Justice! These are the three kingly stars, whose rising over our Southland is the sure presage of the golden dawn of Freedom and Independence.

Radicalism must always be an exotic in the South. It no more suits our people, than the free-love and licentious spiritualism and rank infidelity of New England. For all its instincts are knavish and dishonest. It is the Father of corruptions and the Mother of lies. An execrable sordidness is so ingrained in its nature as to reek at every pore through the outer skin of hypocrisy which covers it, and betray the essential baseness of all its impulses.

A German Radical paper forcibly characterizes as a "scurrilous pusillanimity" that action of the Chicago Jacobin Convention, which approved the imposition of negro suffrage on the helpless South, and its rejection by the States of the North. Into this miserable, contemptible and cowardly proposition, the whole spirit and essence of Radicalism is concentrated: and the shortsightedness of the wretched compromise is as palpable as its meanness. That negroes do not vote in many of the Northern States is of little importance to those who there reject it, if they vote in the South; because the Electors chosen by their votes in the Southern States may defeat the will of the North in the election of a President; and the malignant influence of the votes of white or black members of Congress elected by Southern negroes, will be felt in all the national legislation, which, under the new system of centralization and consolidation intermeddles with all the domestic affairs of the people of the States, inquires into and publishes the amount of their incomes, sends its tax-gatherers into their houses, and plunges its hand into their pockets, while it loads them with debt and saturates the whole body politic with corruption.

This single feature in the creed of Jacobin Fetichism ought to disgust every honest man in the Union. It is one of those scoundrelisms, not even redeemed by the prospect of profit, to which no gentleman, in whatever a vocation of life, ought even by tacit acquiescence to become a party. In all the history of politics in England and America, there is nothing like it. It is a poor, miserable, sneaking, paltry attempt to evade responsibility, that would disgrace a hungry hound, whom starvation prompts to steal a bone, while the fear of a lashing restrains him from following the peremptory impulses of his appetite.

In this is embodied and expressed the essential difference between Radicalism and Conservatism. We beseech all Southern men always to remember that to consult expediency and endeavor to steer a middle course is to take the road that leads to Radicalism, which is but another name for political insincerity and dishonesty.

The Senate was engaged in the discussion of the bill removing political disabilities, but no action was taken.

FOREIGN.

VIENNA, August 4.—The German Democrats held a meeting at this city last night. Speeches were made and resolutions adopted deploring the practical exclusion of the German Provinces of the Austrian Empire from their relations with the Fatherland, and protesting against the settlement of the German Union, the process of arbitrary annexation, and declaring that all action to that end should be based upon the will of the people of the respective States.

VIRGINIA.

ALEXANDRIA, August 4.—The locomotive "Augusta" of the Alexandria, Washington and Georgetown Railroad, exploded this evening at the depot of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, just previous to the starting of the train for Washington, knocking away portions of two houses in the vicinity and scattering the fragments. A negro named Field is believed to be fatally injured. The engineer and fireman are badly hurt. A boy had his hip broken; a woman was seriously hurt, and several others were injured.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 4.—Mike McCoole, in a letter to Mr. Queen, objects to having the stakes for the late frustrated fight given up, and insists that the fight must take place. He considers that his making an appearance at the appointed time won the money, but says he will waive that for another appointment, and says he is content to leave the money in Mr. Queen's hands.

M. Guile, a soldier at Fort Hamilton, was, with others, sent to bathe yesterday. Guile, for some offense, had a ball and chain attached to him, and though a good swimmer, was drowned.

The official letter of acceptance of the Democratic nomination for President by Horatio Seymour, will be made public to-morrow afternoon.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—The public debt statement will probably be issued to-morrow.

The President has directed the issue to the Central Pacific Railroad of the Bonds and Patents for the section of twenty miles ending at the one hundred and seventy-eighth mile east of Sacramento, the Commissioner reporting said section completed and equipped as a first class railroad.

Secretary McCullough received a telegram this morning from Ex Governor Cox, of Ohio, in response to one sent him yesterday, requesting him to accept the appointment of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, which Mr. Cox persists in declining, on the same grounds as before, viz: that his private business engagements will not permit him to do so.

The following official telegram has been received:

ELLSWORTH, KANSAS, August 3.

Just arrived from Larned. Saw the Arrapahoes, Apaches, Kiowas and Comanches, and arranged everything satisfactorily. Apprehend no trouble.

(Signed) THOMAS MURPHY,
Superintendent.

Commissioner Rollins has prepared a list containing the names of parties whose appointments as Supervisors under the new spirit and tobacco tax law, he has recommended to the Secretary of the Treasury, and it is now on file in the Appointment office of the Department, awaiting consideration. They will not be acted on for several days.

MAINE.

PORTLAND, August 4.—The International Commercial Convention met today. Delegates were present from all parts of the United States, Canada and the Provinces. John Neal was chosen temporary Chairman. The Committee on credentials reported that two hundred and five delegates had already arrived and many more were expected. They recommended Gov. Samuel Merrill, of Iowa, for President, with a long list of Vice-Presidents and six Secretaries, from various parts of the country. A committee was appointed to wait on Gov. Merrill, who appeared and took the chair, with a few brief remarks. A committee of thirteen was appointed on the Order of Business, and the Convention adjourned until 3 o'clock, p.m.

The Convention reassembled at 3 p.m. The Committee on the Order of Business reported the following:

1. Railroads across the continent.
2. Lake, river and canal navigation.
3. International commercial relations.

Letters were read from distinguished gentlemen who were unable to attend.

Hon. James W. Taylor, of St. Paul, addressed the Convention on the railroad and ship canal interests of the West. He said the best road to the seas without transmittal is what the West wants; and when a ship canal shall open the St. Lawrence to every portion of the great inland waters, the proud city of New York will be compelled to afford the same privileges with her canal. The railroad system is the key of the canal system.

Committees were appointed to prepare resolutions on the three subjects reported by the Committee on the Order of Business.

The Chairman of the first committee was Hon. J. M. Corbett, of Portland, Oregon; of the second, J. W. Taylor, of St. Paul, Minn., and of the third, W. H. Craig, of Detroit, Mich.

The convention then adjourned until Wednesday morning.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, August 4.—The regular through trains on the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad will commence running to-morrow.

In the House this afternoon, Mr. Prosser, from the Legislative Committee, presented the memorial of Gens. Forrest, Cheatham and others, with whom a conference was had last week, asking for the removal of the political disabilities of the disfranchised, which was referred.

Mr. Kercheval announced that some gentlemen were in the lobby with a memorial from citizens, which they wished to submit on the same subject.

A recess of fifteen minutes to receive them was moved, and after some discussion, carried.

Mr. Chancellor, a Radical, appeared at the bar, read the memorial, and briefly urged that the prayer be granted.

Mr. Hamilton, of Shelby, asked what guarantee of future peace could be given.

Hon. H. S. Foote responded. He was plied with numerous questions, and for awhile a scene of much excitement prevailed—the negroes in the gallery cheering loudly.

After some minutes quiet was restored, and the House resumed its session without any action on the memorial.

The following communication from Gov. Brownlow was then read:

KNOXVILLE, TENN., July 31, 1868.

My high regard for the author of the inclosed letter and ordinance from Hon. John M. Lea, and my confidence in his patriotism and integrity, to say nothing of the importance of the subject discussed, induce me respectfully to submit these documents for your calm and deliberate consideration.

(signed) W. G. BROWNLOW.

Mr. Lea's letter favors the removal of the political disabilities from the disfranchised, and expresses a firm conviction that this measure would prove advantageous to the public interest.

The ordinance provides for submitting to a vote of the people an amendment of the State Constitution conferring the right of suffrage on all males, white and colored, of the proper age, who are citizens of the State and United States, and should a majority of the voters decide in favor of the amendment, then the present Legislature is constituted a State Convention with authority to meet and adopt the amendment.

The Senate referred the message and inclosures to a special joint committee.

The House having been notified of the action of the Senate, adopted, in lieu of the Senate's proposition, a resolution declaring the present not the time to consider the franchise question, by a vote of yeas 50, nays 20.

The final action on the Senate's proposition, as amended, will be taken tomorrow.

The action of the House is received as a practical rejection of the overtures for an extension of the franchise.

TENNESSEE FINANCES.

The July Interest, and Why it Was Not Paid.

Report of Judge Watson.

Judge Watson, President of the State Board of Finance, has made a highly important report on the loan which he was sent on to New York to negotiate for the payment of the interest on the State debt, and the reason why said interest was not paid, as well as the balance of a debt to the Fourth National Bank of New York. After explaining why the completion of the loan was delayed, he says:

The condition of this loan was that the State should have $400,000 in the Fourth National Bank by the 27th of June. While the Comptroller was in New York there was only $75,000 in the bank. There were three East Tennessee Railroad Presidents in New York while the Comptroller was there, owing the State for their interest about $160,000. These railroads were permitted to delay their payment till the 30th of June, three days after the 27th. The Comptroller started home from New York on the 29th of June, stopped a day in Washington, stopped a day in Knoxville, knew that he would have to stop half a day in Chattanooga, and did not reach home in time for a remittance to reach New York, until after the bill against the State was filed. There was another unfortunate mistake made by the Comptroller. He remitted after I went to New York nearly $100,000 to pay off the balance of a loan to the Fourth National Bank. It was expressly provided in a resolution passed by the Board, while the Comptroller was a member of it, that the balance due the Fourth National Bank should be paid out of the loan that was to be made by the Board of Finance. The same thing was provided for in the resolutions, appointing my agent to negotiate a loan, and the Fourth National Bank was not asking for this money. Why pay it then contrary to the intentions and instructions of the bank when it was so pressingly needed for the July interest? Had this amount been remitted to fulfill the conditions of the loan, and had the amount lying in the Treasury while the Comptroller was in New York been duly remitted, we should have the greater part of the $400,000. I should have required the railroad Presidents in New York to pay their money, which they informed me that they would have done, if they had supposed it to be necessary, and if they had not I could have easily have raised it. The loan would have been completed long before the filing the bill against the State, the proceeds of it would have been deposited in bank, and it could not have been attached, and the payment of your July interest would have been secured. Having no remittance from Nashville on the 29th June, and despairing of any from them on the railroads, I went to work, raised $325,000, the amount necessary to make up the $400,000, went to the Fourth National Bank to complete our loan, and when I reached there was met with a dispatch from the Comptroller countermanding the loan, and, at the same time was met with the injunction against making the loan. I know not where the Comptroller gets his authority either to make or countermand a loan.

But my efforts for the State did not cease. The hands of the Fourth National (which had uniformly come to the aid of the State) being tied up, I applied to other sources to secure the payment of our July interest. Finding strong prospect of success, I immediately wrote to the Comptroller that I could pay our interest still, if he would give me his cordial support. I went on with my negotiation, and found that I could succeed beyond a doubt. I waited some days for an answer, from the Comptroller. Receiving none, and fearing that the same difficulties might be interposed in the way of the negotiation as had been in my negotiation with the Fourth National, I suspended my negotiations and returned to Tennessee.

MURDERER ARRESTED.—Mr. Henry Brown, who is accused of having committed a murder in Grenada, Miss., some time since, was arrested by the Second District police yesterday and lodged in prison.

FINE PEACHES.—We were the happy recipient yesterday of a baker's dozen of most beautiful and delightful peaches, grown by our old friend, Joseph T. Mason, on his farm, nine miles east of the city. They were 'cling stones,' and rarely have we tasted so sweet and luscious a peach. Many thanks for his kind remembrance.

ST. DOMINIC.—Yesterday was the feast of St. Dominic, and was celebrated by the good sisters of the Order at St. Peter Orphan Asylum, St. Agnes Academy, and Notre Dame de la Salette, with becoming solemnity and ceremony. We visited the Asylum during the afternoon, and will soon give a little sketch of this most christian and praiseworthy institution.

HARRY WEATHERBEE will reopen today at 10 o'clock the saloon No. 84 Jefferson street, known as the Theater Saloon. The bar will be stocked with the same quality of wines, liquors and cigars as he dispenses at his headquarters, No. 31 Jefferson street. John Van Winkle, the well-known, polite and accomplished barkeeper, will preside over the branch establishment, and dispense the good things to all comers.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street and 393 Main street, have received the Police News, Stats, Country Gentleman, Rural New Yorker, New York Home Journal, Boys' and Girls' Weekly, Railroad Guide for August, New York Weekly, Turf, Field and Farm, New York Mercury, Album, Pleasant Hours, for September, Peterson, for September, Sporting Times, Yankee Notions, Metropolitan Record, Appleton's cheap Dickens' Novels, Waverly, Wilkes' and all the dailies.

WE HAVE RECEIVED from F. Katzenbach, publisher, an advance copy of "The White Man's Banner," a Seymour and Blair campaign song, the words by F. M. Bigney and music by T. Von La Hache, of New Orleans. Copies of this and other Democratic songs supplied glee clubs by Katzenbach.—Ledger, 4th

We are glad to see that Mr. Katzenbach has gone into this line of music, but would like to know whether "The White Man's Banner" is the one that Mr. Katzenbach proposes henceforth to march after. Let him speak out, for it is impossible now for a man to serve God and mammon. If he has renounced his "ebony idols" we shall be glad to hear it.

Business, Visiting and Wedding Cards Printed at the Lowest Prices at the Appeal Job Office.

FOR THE richest, rarest, latest and best, call at Joe Locke's, 22 Jefferson street. He has Father Ryan's paper—Banner of the South, Harper's Bazar and weeklies, Album, Chimney Corner, Leslie's Weekly, Waverly Magazine, Sporting Times, Brick's Democrat, Metropolitan Record, Southern Home Journal, Round Table, Lemonde Illustre, Courrier des Etats Unis, Scientific American, Day's Doings, Police News and Gazette, Peterson's Magazine, Leslie's Pleasant Hours, for September, besides all of the latest monthlies, weeklies and dailies. As we do not wish to crowd out the council proceedings and Democratic Club notices, we are unable to give him a more lengthy notice.

CAPT. DICK LIGHTBURN.—This gentleman has taken charge of the City Wharf boat, at the foot of Union street, and goes into the steamboat agency business, with which he is so well acquainted, having been secretary of the Memphis and Arkansas packet line for a long time at this port, and in many other ways connected with our river interests. He will attend only to legitimate business, and will make no charge for storing or forwarding such freight as may pass through his hands. Mr. Bob Speed will continue upon the boat as receiving and discharging clerk. The A. & M. S. S. Line will land at his wharf boat as usual, while all other boats landing there will find him prompt and reliable in the transaction of business.

SHOOTING AFFRAY ON ADAMS STREET.

Yesterday morning a shooting affray occurred on Adams street, in front of the St. Nicholas beer saloon, in which a gambler named Jim Fitzgerald shot and wounded, perhaps fatally, a fireman named Tom Kinna, under the following circumstances:

Kinna, Fitzgerald, and two other men named Hanner and Huse, had been drinking together all night. About sunrise they walked from Jefferson street up Main, and at the corner of Adams were joined by a man named Conklin, and the five went into the St. Nicholas and called for drinks. They were served; drank and started off without paying, when the barkeeper called to know "whose treat it was?" They answered, "Kinna's," and he threw down a quarter of a dollar and walked out, making some remark as he passed out, which caused the party to begin 'skylarking' as if for fun. All at once, no one knew how, a pistol was fired, and Kinna fell. Policeman James Halloran, of the First District, saw Fitzgerald with his hand stretched out, and smoke around it, but did not see a pistol. He rushed up to the spot and, with aid from officer Rice, arrested Fitzgerald, Huss and Hanner, and carried them to the Station. Conklin had run into the saloon and escaped. The pistol, a Colt's repeater was found behind the bar in the saloon.

Kinna, meanwhile, lay on the Nicholson pavement, writhing in great pain from his wound, (which was through the right groin, the ball lodging under the skin in the hip,) until some friend procured a carriage and sent him home.

During the day Nick. Huss was taken out of the Station on a State Warrant, charged with being accessory to the shooting of Kinna, with intent to commit murder, and was taken before 'Squire Kiernan. A preliminary hearing of the case was held, and Dr. T. Donoho, who attended Kinna, was examined by Capt. Van Anderson as to the nature of the wound, and he testified that though it was severe it was not necessarily fatal, or even dangerous. Huss was then bailed by the 'Squire in the sum of four thousand dollars to appear from day to day.

LYNCH LAW.

The "Masked Cavalry" Hang Two Negro Murderers in Coffeeville, Miss.

We learn the following facts from a gentleman just from Coffeeville, Miss.:

On last Thursday, two negroes, named Tom and Gilbert McLean, were arrested by the military authorities, charged with the murder of McSwine, (an account of which we gave some time ago.) We understand that the prisoners acknowledged their guilt, and were turned over by the military to the civil authorities and lodged in the county jail to await trial. During the afternoon, the Loyal League negroes assembled in knots, and, becoming excited, talked of a rescue but nothing was attempted; guards were doubled at the jail, however, in case of an emergency.

Toward midnight, squads of masked horsemen, to the number of about two hundred, wearing high conical hats and Spanish cloaks, entered the town from three different directions at once and surrounded the jail. Pickets were thrown out in regular military style, and the surrender of the jail demanded. The jailors refused to give up their charge, but were overpowered, and the keys taken from them. So noiselessly was this all done that a ball which was in progress in the Courthouse was not disturbed, and knew nothing of what was transpiring. The keys in their possession, they found no difficulty in making their way to the cell containing the murderers. They, meanwhile, had heard the confusion, and thinking that their friends, the Leaguers, had rallied to the rescue, were jubilant over the prospect of being released, and assisted the visitors in opening the door of their cell. Their horror at finding themselves in the hands of their executioners, instead of rescuers, may be better imagined than described. They were gagged and taken by their mysterious captors from the building, and escorted to a tree near the railroad, and were swung up. Their bodies were still swinging there, twenty-four hours after, when our informant passed.

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.

One by one the Radical chickens are coming home to roost; lie after lie as it is told, circulated, and attracts attention, is clinched and hurled back in the throats of the utterers, as the following one is:

Having seen a publication in the Memphis Bulletin, in regard to the late election at Looxahoma, on the authority of Maj. Wiseman, late of the United States army and Freedmen's Bureau, I deem it my privilege, if not duty, as a citizen of Looxahoma, to refute the statements therein contained. Maj. Wiseman said that the following colored persons, freedmen, viz: George Cole, Dan Lea, Charley Powers, Alfred Cathey and Peter Cathey, were deterred from voting by threats, and various other means. Said colored persons, feeling that their characters have been slandered, take this method of vindicating themselves.

A CITIZEN.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, }
DESOTO COUNTY. }

Personally appeared before me, A. H. Yancey, an acting Justice of the Peace in and for the county and State aforesaid, the following colored persons, freedmen: Charley Powers, Dan Lea, Peter Cathey, Alfred Cathey and George Cole, who, being duly sworn, deposeth and sayeth that the statements published in the Memphis Bulletin relative to the late election at Looxahoma, on the authority of Maj. Wiseman, formerly of the Freedmen's Bureau, but discharged therefrom for peculations in office, are unmitigated falsehoods, and their originator a slanderous liar; that they are positive that no threats or coercion were used to deter them from voting the Radical ticket.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 24th day of July, 1868.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Mayor's Message—Workhouse—Cotton Storage—Hospital Management, Etc.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen took place yesterday evening, the Board being called to order by Chairman Swayne.

The minutes of several meetings were read and approved, after which the following message from the Mayor was read:

MAYOR'S MESSAGE.
MAYOR'S OFFICE, August 4, 1868.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

Since the inauguration of the present Board of Mayor and Aldermen, your attention has been mainly directed to the relief of the due and pressing indebtedness of the city, in which it is gratifying to know you have succeeded beyond the hopes of the most sanguine.

It now behooves you to give attention and encouragement to such enterprises as are calculated to promote the enduring prosperity of the city, and paramount to all others I consider the early completion of the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad, in which the city is largely interested, both directly and remotely.

The adoption of such an ordinance in relation to wharfage as will protect and foster our local packets is imperatively demanded; and every facility should be offered to the contemplated establishment here of a dry dock, for the repairing and building of steamboats.

The wharfboat known as the "Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Company's Wharfboat," now lying at the foot of Monroe street, should be removed to such a portion of the landing as is not so essential for the accommodation of steamboats; and in view of its evident unsoundness, a sufficient and satisfactory bond should be required of its owners to indemnify the city against the expense of removing the wreck in the event of its sinking.

The establishment of a workhouse is of too grave import to be hastened or retarded by such revolting spectacles as the displays of last Saturday, the mover of which could more speedily produce the desired result by honestly, and in compliance with a law, accounting for the "privilege tax," which a corrupt party, for corrupt purposes, has placed at his disposal. The measures already inaugurated looking to that end should be pressed to completion with as much haste as is consistent with its establishment on a permanent and practical basis; and the engine house on Poplar street, now useless to the city, might with propriety be sold, or used in part payment for suitable property for this purpose.

All departments of the city government are working harmoniously and satisfactorily, except, perhaps, the City Hospital, in regard to which I deem it my duty to say: The vague complaints which are being made against the management of that institution cannot be otherwise than embarrassing to the Hospital Physician, who in turn charges the Hospital Committee with neglect of its duties. This condition of affairs cannot exist without seriously impairing its usefulness; hence, I recommend that the charges, if any exist, be promptly investigated, and the matter thus put finally to rest. The appointment of a competent and responsible steward will relieve the physician of the responsibilities that seem to be the only source of complaint, and will, I am convinced, re-establish the harmony that should exist between the physician and the committee. A nomination for this position was heretofore made, and the same is again recommended.

The advice heretofore given, and so promptly discarded, relative to the employment of a permanent first class accountant for the Controller's office is again respectfully renewed.

Respectfully, etc.,
JOHN W. LEFTWICH, Mayor.

The monthly statement of the City Controller was read and ordered to be filed.

The following collections for the month of July were reported: Wharfmaster, $2388 73; North Market Master $340; South Market Master $425; Tax Collector, $5422 74; Tax Collector on Privileges, $5721 46. The Tax Collector on Privileges also reported that he held receipts for $63,480 69, turned over to Mr. Burditt, Financial Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police, since the 9th day of January, 1868.

Dr. Kellar, City Hospital Physician, reported 58 patients in hospital at last report, 75 received since, 133 treated, 57 discharged, 13 died, and 63 remaining at present time.

The Improvement Committee reported in favor of opening Hernando street, and against the grading of Trezevant street from Shelby to the river. The report was concurred in.

The City Engineer reported the total cost of nine sections of the Nicholson pavement on Main street as $124,685 34; city's portion $35,280 98. DeSoto street, four sections, $44,685 34; city's portion, $6678 52. Poplar street, one section, $5587 52; city's portion, $1832 32. Beal street, one section, $8729 10.

Alderman Passmore, from the Committee on Accounts, reported on a number of claims, which were disposed of

The Finance Committee reported adversely to feeding the horses of the Sanitary police. Adopted.

Alderman Johnson introduced a dog-muzzling ordinance, providing that all unmuzzled canines found on the streets, night or day, between the 15th of July and the 15th of September, be executed. Adopted.

The Ordinance Committee reported an ordinance against storing cotton in other buildings than those built for the purpose, with an amendment permitting five bales to be kept in any building for not longer than twenty-four hours.

Alderman Passmore opposed the ordinance because it would infringe on the rights of merchants, and would and should not be submitted to. He denounced the Board of Underwriters for making such discriminations in regard to insurance and what a man should have in his building.

Alderman Renner opposed the ordinance, and wanted to know why an ordinance was not also introduced against the quantity of coal-oil and feathers that should be kept in a house.

Alderman McDavitt did not know a city in the world that allowed cotton to be kept in stores. Cotton was nearly as dangerous as a magazine. He thought it a very serious matter to accommodate a little peddler with a few bales of cotton and endanger the whole city.

Alderman Mageveney said that no man was allowed to keep what he pleased in his house. What were cotton warehouses for? If any man was permitted to take any amount of cotton into his store, the warehouses for storing cotton might as well be taken down.

The ordinance, as amended, was finally adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Johnson, Mageveney, Black, Brown, Holst, O'Donnell, Cicalla, Ruffin, Moffet and McDavitt—10.

Noes—Glancey, Joyce, Cartwright, Renner, Passmore and Fillis—6.

An ordinance regulating the charges of furniture and express wagons was adopted after some debate, in which a difference of charges between the old and new city limits was obliterated. A one-horse wagon is allowed to charge $1 per load; two-horse wagon, $3 per load, within the present city limits, and $5 for moving a piano.

A violation of the ordinance is punishable with a fine of ten to twenty-five dollars.

The Gas Committee reported favorably on locating gas lamps on Main, below Beal, and at necessary points on Linden and Lauderdale streets.

The Special Committee on establishing a union depot for all the railroads reported a resolution calling on the railroad and city engineers to survey the proposed routes, etc., and report to the Board. Adopted.

The Special Paving Committee reported in favor of paving Second street from Winchester street to the bayou bridge, and Monroe street, between Second and Front, with the Nicholson pavement, the work to be done as soon as possible.

An argument between the faculty of the Medical college of Memphis and the city was read and approved, granting the use of a certain portion of Exchange Building for collegiate purposes for ten years. Two hundred dollars was also appropriated for fitting up a city dispensary in connection with the college.

The petition of Gantt & Waddell, for services in the Freighting company suit, was referred to the Committee on Claims and the City Attorney.

The Second Ward Democratic Club were granted the use of the enginehouse on Poplar street for meetings until further orders.

A petition in regard to changing the tax on banks was read in favor of making the tax according to the capital employed, instead of each institution having to pay five hundred dollars per annum. It was referred to Aldermen Moffet, Ruffin, Holst, Black and Johnson.

A petition from property owners in regard to the widening of Rayburn avenue at no expense to the city, was read and the suggestion adopted by the Board.

Petitions from the Memphis and Essex Boat Clubs to be allowed to erect boat houses at the landing, were referred to the Landing Committee.

A petition from the Chamber of Commerce in favor of the city donating $250 towards the removal of the Cairo dry docks to this city, was referred to Finance Committee.

Old Relief Fire Company No. 7, having organized a boat club, petitioned for their old hose carriage to haul their boat on. Referred to Fire Committee.

The City Engineer was authorized to advertise for bids for the erection of a wooden bridge over the bayou on Third treet.

Alderman Moffet introduced an ordinance in regard to wharfage charges, which was referred to the Ordinance Committee.

The Mayor's message being taken up, that portion referring to the Memphis and Little Rock railroad was referred to a committee consisting of Aldermen Passmore, McDavitt, Ruffin, Brown and Glancey.

That portion in regard to wharfage, the protection of local packets, and the establishment of dry docks, was referred to the Finance Committee.

The recommendation for the removal of the Atlantic and Mississippi Company's wharfboat was referred to the Landing Committee.

In regard to the Mayor's workhouse suggestion, Alderman Passmore stated that a committee had reported three months since in favor of the Mayor advertising for plans, etc., but nothing had been done.

Mayor Leftwich said he knew nothing of it, having been absent from the city, but would cheerfully carry out the wishes of the committee.

The Mayor's reference in his message to the City Hospital produced a lively debate, in which nearly every Alderman gave his opinion in regard to Dr. Kellar and hospital management in general.

Alderman Mageveney denounced the lavish expenditure of last year, and wanted to know where the money went. He introduced a resolution requiring the Mayor to notify Dr. Kellar to vacate the building used by him as a residence on the hospital grounds immediately. He was opposed to any physician or his family residing at the hospital, although no member of the Board thought more of Dr. Kellar and his family than he did.

Alderman Passmore defended Dr. Kellar and his hospital warmly, and said the large figures of last year was caused by the depreciation of scrip, which required high prices to be paid. He also stated that Dr. Kellar had often fed city patients from his own table.

Aldermen Ruffin and Renner also defended the city hospital earnestly and at length.

Aldermen McDavitt, Brown and Cicalla also spoke.

A motion had been made to refer the matter to a special committee of five, which gave great offense to the Hospital Committee, Alderman Johnson speaking against the reference and endeavoring to pour oil on the troubled waters.

Alderman Moffet moved to adjourn until four o'clock this evening, which was carried, thus cutting off debate and allowing the Aldermen to cool off and go to supper.

THE EYE.—We would rather tenfold lose speech and hearing than those windows of the mind which God has given us with which to look out on His works. Like many others we have felt this truth, oh, how keenly, when, for weary months, amid arduous toil, we were forbidden to use pen or book, or gaze out upon the clear sunlight. Any, therefore, who by long study and cultivated skill have found the means of relief for such sufferers, should be held in grateful esteem. We refer our readers to Dr. Norris, Oculist, 59 Madison street, Memphis, who has gained a reputation for treating the eye unequaled by any oculist in the South and West. His reputation for curing any disease whatever of the eye is increasing day by day; passing beyond the limits of this State, has extended through those adjoining and those more remote, reaching even to Texas and Minnesota, procuring him many patients from each and all, till he is now, we believe, the acknowledged oculist, not only of this city, but of the South.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, August 4, 1868.

Money matters are comparatively easy and the banks report a gradual increase in the demand for loans for some ten days back. The call comes from our merchants, and is altogether of a legitimate business character and mostly for small amounts. We are glad to state that the wants are being liberally met by bankers, all of whom seem disposed to aid so far as lies in their power the merchant and the planter to go through this the most trying part of the season.

Gold opened to-day in New York at 145½, went up steadily and closed at 146¼. Our brokers buy at 144@145c. Selling at 145½@146c.

Rates of exchange are the same as at our last.

In stocks and bonds there is nothing of interest transpiring. City bonds are very firm and in demand. An offer of 53c for $12,000 was refused, as was also one of 54c for $10,000, while a broker sold $1000 at 55c. Ten shares First National Bank stock sold during the day at $140, dividend off.

City scrip is quiet. Buying at 70@75c. Selling at 80c.

County warrants dull at 50@52c buying. Selling at 55@58c.

Police scrip buying at 70c. Selling at 75c.

The New York stock exchange quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Coupons of '81, 15¼; do '82, 14½; do '64, 10½; do '65, 12½; new issue, 8½; do '67, 8½; 10-40s, 8½; 7-30s, both series, none; Government bonds, steady; old Tennessees, none; new, not quoted.

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY

PUBLISHED BY THE

MASONIC PUBLISHING

—AND—

MANUFACTURING COMPANY

432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACcepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov. Grand Commander. 8vo. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 6th to 14th degrees, $6 00.

☞ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft the vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

☞ Copies of the above for the Memphis Brethren are ready for delivery at the Editorial Rooms of the APPEAL, 14 Jefferson street, up-stairs. jw1 lan29

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the most instrument for the least cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They have an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 dawly

Hopkins, as will appear by reference to said Trust Deed, recorded in the Recorder's office of Cook county, Illinois in Book 230 of Deeds, page 262. And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said accommodation bills and note, and application has been made and a sale of said premises, for cash, has been directed by a majority of said beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust names, for the purpose of carrying out said Trust; now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that I will, on
